the time notorious black belt of Rock Island, was made when L. K. Ehl, city inspector, following instructions of Chief William H. Peltus, inspected the former resort of Al Davis, 2191 Third avenue.
The resort operated by Davis into prominence several days ago when Mrs. Edna Davis, his wife, shot John Burns, a negro convict who was trying to gain entrance to her room.
Davis had been living at the place since her husband was in the county jail after an incident charging him with the murder of a disorderly house.
She is now in St. Anthony's hospital recovering from the bullet wound in the neck and Mrs. Davis being held in the county jail with her husband under a bond of $100 until her hearing which is set for Jan. 6.

Sanitary conditions of the former gambling resort and house of prostitution were very bad, Mr. Ehl reported, after his visit to the place.
Health department activities followed and Mrs. Davis' belongings and personal property were put in several trunks and placed in storage. A phonograph, beds and other miscellaneous pieces of furniture were returned to the firms from which they had been purchased on the installment plan. Fixtures in the bar are part of the

JAMES CONNOR DIES SUDDENLY WHILE IN SOUTH

Apoplectic Attack Fatal to Rock Islander Spending Winter at Biloxi, Miss.

James Connor, 702 Twentieth street, died suddenly of apoplexy last night at Biloxi, Miss., where he was spending the winter months, as had been his custom for a number of years. Mr. Connor had been in his usual health and was about the hotel at which he was a guest yesterday. A telegram announcing the death of her husband was received by Mrs. Connor late last night.

The remains will be brought to

Suits and Overcoats Now Reduced

YOUNG men home from school; business and professional men; in fact all men who appreciate fine woolens and workmanship will find assembled here right now an early season stock of suits and overcoats at prices reduced to a point where buying for future needs is a wise investment.

Every overcoat in our store is included in this clearance; practically all of our suits; the makes include Yorkshire, Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Patrick.

No extra charges for alterations; all clothes purchased tomorrow will be ready for New Year's Eve

The Right Tuxedo Is Ready Here for You

A MAN has to be pretty careful about dress clothes, almost the right thing won't do; details in every way must be correct. Because we supply the big majority of the best dressed men in the three cities with their clothes requirements, we've made big preparations in the way of formal wear. Suits purchased tomorrow will be ready by evening, but we would ask you to come in as early in the day as possible.

- Tuxedo Suits, $30, $35, $40, $45, $50 and $60
- Tuxedo Coats, $23.50, $27.50, $37.50, $38.50, $41.50 and $50.
- Tuxedo Pumps, $7.50. Tuxedo Shirts $5 and $6.
- Tuxedo Ties, $1. Tuxedo Vests, $6 and $8.50.

Note: A great many men like to wear stiff hats with dress clothes; they're very stylish right now for every day as well as for formal wear.
Stetsons have sent us some "new ones" at 7 dollars.

Boys' Suits, Mackinaws, Overcoats, Now Reduced

THE boys haven't been forgotten in this clearance, in fact mothers will do well to bring the boys down tomorrow and get them outfitted before school begins.
The reductions in the boys' store as well as the men's deserve special attention. Suits, overcoats and mackinaws at very unusual prices.
